

Anti-Zionism is not Anti-Semitism

In the West, the crimes of the Zionists and Israel are condoned by labeling any critic as an anti-Semite. This approach obscures the following fact: The Zionists promote anti-Semitism to legitimize their crimes.

Peter Hanseler

Sun 22 Mar 2026

Introduction

The Collective West, which unconditionally supports the war of destruction against Iran, claims that anyone who raises their voice against the Zionists and Israel is an anti-Semite who must be punished. This strategy of the West is not only malicious, but it ultimately leads to precisely what the “anti-Semitism” label purports to want to prevent with all political and, increasingly, legal power: namely, the perception of Israeli policy as a crime of Judaism.

Anyone who perceives Israel's policies in this way and is unable to separate the wheat from the chaff is almost inevitably drawn toward anti-Semitic attitudes in the uncritical political debate taking place in the West. This tendency is fueled by the deliberately vague definitions of anti-Semitism, Judaism, and Zionism, as well as the distinctions between them. These definitions, which blur the boundaries of the concepts, form the very basis upon which the West acts with all its might and passes judgment, particularly in Germany.

And so the circle closes. The Zionists need anti-Semitism so they can portray themselves as its victims and use it to promote and achieve their criminal goals.

A few thoughts on a topic that is sure to get the blood boiling among Zionists and uneducated fools in the West.

Zionism, Israel, Judaism

Judaism is the sum of the culture, history, religion, and traditions of the Jewish people and has existed for approximately 4,000 years (see also our discussion on this topic in “Judaism, Zionism, Anti-Semitism, and Israel: Misuse of Terms” from October 2023.)

Zionism is a political movement that has existed in an organized form since the First Zionist Congress in Basel in 1897. This movement has nothing to do with Judaism; rather, it was founded by the Viennese journalist Theodor Herzl, a completely non-religious man. The original goal of this political movement was the establishment or proclamation of the State of Israel, which was achieved in 1948. Today, the goal of Zionism is the creation of Greater Israel, which is intended to dominate most of the Middle East. What will the goal be after that?

Theodor Herzl made the following statement:

«The anti-Semites will become our most dependable friends, the anti-Semitic countries our allies.»

THEODOR HERZL, 1896

The notion that Jews are under threat is a central element of the Zionist master plan. The Zionists hide behind anti-Semitism and Judaism in order to carry out their crimes. Another goal they pursue is the merging of Zionism and Judaism. The reason is simple: Many people have—rightly so—reservations about criticizing Jews, not only because of the Holocaust, but also because of the countless pogroms that took place in nearly every European country. By merging Zionism and Judaism, the Zionists create an excellent protective shield for themselves.

As long as Western politicians cannot distinguish between Zionism, Israel, and Greater Israel as Zionist projects on the one hand, and Judaism on the other—and do not seem willing to do so—Judaism is bound to lose, and the Zionist criminals hiding behind it are bound to win.

Who are the Zionists?

The US Congress supports Israel as a Zionist project with approximately $5 billion annually. Furthermore, the US provides Israel with every form of political support for war, genocide, land theft, and the complete enslavement of people. In addition to Adelson's well-known large donation to Trump, hordes of American politicians are being bought off en masse so that they speak and vote in Israel's interests. In the current 119th U.S. Congress (532 members), only 32 Jews are represented (6%); nevertheless, the U.S. Congress, which consists of 87% Christians, has voted staunchly in favor of Zionism since 1948 (figures: Pew Research).

To secure a majority in Congress, 50% plus one vote (266+1) is required; thus, at least 235 non-Jews, together with 32 Jews, determine the Zionist policy of the United States, bringing the non-Jewish share of Zionists in the U.S. Congress to a staggering 88%.

Israel is nothing more than an American outpost through which the US controls the Middle East. In my view, the question of whether Israel controls the US or the US controls and manipulates Israel is irrelevant from a geopolitical perspective. Together, they form a power bloc designed to subjugate one of the richest and most sensitive regions in the world. Distinguishing who dominates whom only becomes relevant when considering how to neutralize this alliance.

What do Jews Say about Zionism and Israel?

In the West, especially in Europe, people are completely unaware that there are many Jews who despise and oppose Zionism and the Israeli project. Non-Jews, on the other hand—such as the German Chancellor—are pursuing a Zionist agenda regardless of the consequences. This goes so far that Friedrich Merz unconditionally and without reservation promotes and supports an Israeli and US attack on Iran, claiming it is necessary.

His hate-monger Marie-Agnes Strack-Zimmermann, who works for the arms industry, supports every war as part of her job, and has no qualms whatsoever about stoking hatred on a Nazi scale, said a few days ago on the public broadcaster ARD:

“Iran is a plague on this earth”

MARIE-AGNES STRACK-ZIMMERMANN, 19 MARCH 2026

Marie-Agnes Strack-Zimmermann: Form follows function

People have absolutely no sense or idea that, in terms of communication, we have once again reached the level of Hitler and Goebbels—and ultimately, once again at the expense of the Jews—because many Jews who oppose Zionism are being persecuted anew for something they cannot change: the fact that they are Jewish.

In the following, I feature two Jewish speakers: a rabbi who assesses the issue from a religious perspective, and an Israeli journalist who touches on a sore spot in Israeli society.

Rabbi Abraham Silberstein

Rabbi Abraham Silberstein

Rabbi Abraham Silberstein is a leading Jewish scholar who advocates for animal rights within Judaism and serves as the Executive Director of Voice of Rabbis. He is known for his critical stance on the biblical justification for land claims in the Middle East, based on teachings from the Torah and the Talmud.

“I want to be clear that violence against anyone is never allowed.

But let me explain this further.

The Zionist government cannot sustain itself without antisemitism.

Zionists need Jewish people to live in constant fear, in order for their existence, as so-called Jewish saviours should look true.

Zionists will always use words such as Holocaust and pogroms to describe incidents that don't even apply to Jewish people, but strictly to this Israeli government.

Also, Zionists are working day and night to merge the identity of Judaism and Zionism into one.

They need Jews to be responsible for their action, or else they cannot use antisemitism as a shield.

They'll always say it's about all the Jewish people. Not Israel, to get us to pay.

We see this in the streets of Europe, and now also in America. It must be stopped.

Zionists are working for their selfish agendas at the expense of Jewish people.”

RABBI SILBERSTEIN, 20 MARCH 2026

Gideon Levy

Gideon Levy

Gideon Levy, an Israeli journalist, is a vocal critic of Israeli policy and condemns the widespread belief among Israelis that they are superior to the rest of the world. In the linked speech, he sarcastically criticizes the following points: Israel as the chosen people, Israelis as the great victims—the only victims—and Palestinians as subhuman, since Israelis are superior.

Conclusion

Not only does the West give the criminal Zionists carte blanche to commit genocide and wage illegal wars—acts that, under the Nuremberg criteria, would all be punishable by death—but it also finances these malicious deeds at the expense of taxpayers, who are driven into poverty as a result of these wars.

Anyone who speaks up against this is labeled an anti-Semite and ostracized—by people who don't even realize that anti-Semitism is the very lifeblood of the Zionists.

ARTICLE TAGS:

Analysis Herzl, Theodor Israel